DIRECTIVE INFLUENCE of the HOUSES. (Intrinsic Cosmic Qualities).

1st QUADRANT: Personality.

2nd QUADRANT: Home Environment.

3rd QUADRANT: External Relations

4th QUADRANT: External Environment

The Ancient Philosophers divided the canopy of Heaven, into twelve equal parts which they called “Houses” or “Mansions” of the Heavens.

The above chart depicts the Intrinsic Interpretation of the HOUSES through which the Constellations and the Planets pass.

The 1st House is the House coming to the Ascendant (which is the Eastern Horizon) and is very important at the time of the birth for it brings the power with it.

The 7th House, the opposite side, is the Descendant and has the opposite effect – declining of power.

The Mid Heaven, 10th House, is also very important as it forms half the Cross, the Cross being the strongest factor in manifestation – the Symbol of Limitation. (The M.C. is the Divine Life pouring down).

The Nadir, 4th House, forms the lower half of the Cross.

Thus the 1st, 4th, 7th, and 10th Houses form the Cross.
